LINCOLNTON––For Christian Ministry of Lincoln County, right now is a time for taking stock.

And according to executive director Mitzi Williams, it means a pause for reflection.

“As we move into the final months of the year, we want to take a moment to reflect on the incredible impact our ministry has had, thanks to your continued generosity and prayers,” Williams said Friday. “Over the past few months, we have been blessed to assist those in need with critical support.”

She added that this includes some $74,000 spent on utilities, rent and medical assistance, thus helping families stay in their homes. And $40,000 has gone toward providing food, helping to ensure that no one in the community goes hungry.

“As we continue to give support to those who have lost food due to power outages and to people moving here from the mountains, we are ramping up efforts to prepare for our annual Christmas giveaway on Dec. 20,” she said.
